Theodore Bell, of San Francisco Makes Application For Restraining Order

WILL DEPORT ALIEN REVOLUTIONISTS HELD IN CALIFORNIA JAILS

(By Associated Press) SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 2.—Parties of alleged alien revolutionists are being organized at San Francisco and other coast points for deportation as a result of the bomb plot and other radical activities, Immigration Commissioner White announced today. The men are held in jail in various parts of California and will be assembled in San Francisco and sent east by way of Seattle.

BERLIN IS THE DE FACTO CENTER

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, May 2.—The police are examining a large quantity of explosives confiscated in a raid last night in connection with an investigation of the May Day bomb conspiracy. It is expected that the police and federal officers will make a roundup of the Reds today. It is reported that messages were sent to the American peace delegates in Paris warning them against opening packages, although there was nothing to indicate that bombs had been sent abroad.

THOUSANDS WITNESS FALL OF AVIATORS

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, May 2.—An air plane giving a Victory loan exhibition here today fell 200 feet. The pilot and mechanic were injured seriously. Thousands of spectators witnessed the fall.

NORTH DAKOTA CONTESTS RIGHT TO MAKE INTRASTATE RATES

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—Counsel for North Dakota today filed a brief contesting the government's authority to interfere with intrastate freight and passenger rates in an appeal brought to the supreme court by the government from the state supreme court's decree enjoining the Northern Pacific from raising rates in compliance with the railroad administration's order. The brief asserts that congress, in enacting the railroad control act had no intention of giving federal officers

WHAT'S CORSET ASKS TAX MAN

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, May 2.—Lew Hahn, executive secretary of the National Retail Dry Goods association, asked Commissioner of Internal Revenue Roper to decide if corsets are underwear or a luxury, and whether or not they are taxable. Hahn says some merchants are collecting a war tax on corsets and some are not. He wants an official definition.

PAY YOUR CHECK

TERMS OF TREATY GIVEN IN BRIEF

(By Associated Press) PARIS, May 2.—The Echo de Paris says today that the peace treaty comprises 15 to 20 chapters. The first preamble, setting forth reasons why the various contracting parties entered the war, mentions the necessity for a league of nations. The second deals with German frontiers. The third contains all clauses connected with alteration of the frontiers, the fourth military and aerial clauses, and the fifth the disposition of German colonies. The others are not complete. They concern reparations, economic and financial questions and international labor legislation. The concluding chapter concerns German guarantees for the execution of treaty conditions.

PLENTY OF PEP LEFT IN MARKET

Anyone who feels timid about the stock market should take another whiff of the pipe and cheer up after reading that the Torgery, a 29 cent stock promoted here and in New York, opened on the eastern curb at 80 cents and closed at 60. MacNamara was the surprise of the day, going from $9 to $11 1/2 after opening at a dollar on the strength of the big ore contracts with companies operating on the Divide, as it is a foregone conclusion that this mill will also treat ores from the Hasbrouck. Rescue held firm around 24 to 26, and Hasbrouck was buoyant, closing at 92 on a buyer 50 after opening at 88. Gold Zone was virtually unchanged. The Comstocks furnished considerable excitement with Con Virginia going from $2.10, the opening yesterday, to a maximum today of $3.25, closing at $2.92 1/2. Total transactions were 492,400 shares distributed chiefly among the following:

| | |
|-------------|--------|
| Gold Zone | 9,100 |
| Gold Reef | 12,400 |
| Repo | 13,000 |

VICTORY BONDS ARE GOING SLOW

Tonopah's quota for the Victory loan is not coming in as promptly as the local managers expected in view of the busy state of affairs here which keeps everybody jumping sideways to keep pace with developments. The quota is $280,000 of which $92,550 has been received to date without hearing from any of the big mining companies. The quota applies only to companies operating in Tonopah as the Divide companies are included in the Esmeralda allotment. Subscriptions reported to this afternoon are as follows: through the Tonopah Banking Corporation, $38,950; First National Bank, $12,600; West End company and employees, $6100; Ladies committee not reported to either bank, $9900 and James Grimes, $25,000. Only part of the committees have reported and the West End report is incomplete.

NO PLACE FOR ANARCHISTS IN THE REPUBLIC OF ARGENTINA

(By Associated Press) BUENOS AIRES, May 2.—Vigilance committees organized by the Argentine Patriotic League, supported by military and naval detachments, yesterday prevented menacing anarchistic tendencies in the socialist demonstrations. President Irigoyen told Dr. Manuel Carles, president of the league, that socialist and anarchistic organizations had appealed to him for protection against the league which had been warned that they would forcibly suppress any Maximalist disorders. The president asked what the league intended to do. Dr. Carles answered that it intended to end anarchy and the effort to break down the civilization of Argentina and intends to prevent all demonstrations of anarchists.

SOUTHERN COURT FOR CHILD LABOR

(By Associated Press) GREENSBORO, N. C., May 2.—Federal Judge James Boyd today declared unconstitutional the child labor section of the war revenue bill placing a prohibitive tax on products of child labor. Judge Boyd declared void last year the original child labor act which the supreme court annulled by one vote.

OFFERS $135,000 FOR THE BIG FIGHT

(By Associated Press) MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 2.—Mike Collins, a local promoter, telegraphed Tex Rickard today an offer of $135,000 for permission to promote the Willard Dempsey fight proposed for the Fourth of July. Collins announced that he had received $100,000 backing from Minneapolis and that the fighters would be brought here for a ten round contest if Rickard accepts.

WAR TIME ENACTMENT CONTESTED BY WINE MAKERS OF CALIFORNIA

(By Associated Press) SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—An action to restrain enforcement of the war prohibition and Sheppard prohibition amendment was filed in the United States District Court by Theodore Bell, attorney. He petitioned for a permanent injunction to restrain the United States attorney from enforcing either. The suit was filed in the name of Ephraim Light, wine maker, and H. J. Williams, vineyardist. The complaint asserts that enforcement would wipe out an industry valued at $75,000,000.

CHINA WILL NOT ACCEPT TERMS

(By Associated Press) PARIS, May 2.—It is understood that today's meeting of the council of three will be devoted to odds and ends. It is expected that the Chinese peace delegation will issue a statement concerning settlement of the Kiao-Chau dispute by the council of three which it is understood will express dissatisfaction.

HAYWOOD MUST REMAIN IN JAIL

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, Ill., May 2.—The United States circuit court of appeals has refused to accept bonds for the release of William Haywood, Industrial Workers of the World leader, now in the Leavenworth federal prison. The court said the proffered securities were insufficient.

LABOR PROGRAM MOST IMPORTANT

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—President Wilson has called Secretary Tamm to his office to discuss the labor program adopted as part of the peace treaty. He said he believed that no other single thing that had been done would help more to stabilize conditions of labor throughout the world and ultimately relieve the unhappy condition which in too many places have prevailed.

WILL NOT SINK GERMAN SHIPS

(By Associated Press) PARIS, May 2.—Naval terms of the peace treaty as finally completed do not provide for the sinking of the larger German warships. Their disposition is left to a decision by the allied and associated powers later.

ONE THIRD QUOTA LOAN REACHED

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—Loan subscriptions have reached a billion and a half. Reports showed the number of individual subscriptions decreasing in several districts. Treasury officials declared extraordinary efforts are necessary to equal the record of twenty millions subscribers for the fourth loan.
